

Omnibus Public Management Act of 2009
Public Law No. 111-11, March 30, 2009

Omnibus Public Management Act of 2009
Public Law No. 111-11, March 30, 2009

Warm Springs Indian Reservation

A hand-drawn map of a creek. The creek is represented by a blue line with wavy edges. A red cross is drawn on the creek, indicating a specific location. The word "Creek" is written in blue ink below the creek line. To the left of the creek, the word "Cato" is partially visible, likely part of "Cato Creek".

MAP AREA

14

Mill

0

23

26

DISCLAIMER: The data shown in this survey is based on data collected from the 1990 Census for the map. These data might only indicate trends or help track trends inside the boundaries of the census tracts. They do not represent the actual characteristics of the entire population. Any such trends or help track trends should be verified with independent data sources. The data shown in this survey is based on data collected from the 1990 Census for the map. These data might only indicate trends or help track trends inside the boundaries of the census tracts. They do not represent the actual characteristics of the entire population. Any such trends or help track trends should be verified with independent data sources. The data shown in this survey is based on data collected from the 1990 Census for the map. These data might only indicate trends or help track trends inside the boundaries of the census tracts. They do not represent the actual characteristics of the entire population. Any such trends or help track trends should be verified with independent data sources.